

ASTRONOMY DAY 2010

APRIL 24, 2010

MUSEUM OF THE SOUTHWEST

Schedule of Events

All day from 10-5, and then a star party beginning at 8:00 pm
(weather permitting)

10:15 a.m.

Show: Astronaut

Description: Experience how astronauts train as well as what it is like to go into space.

11:15 a.m.

Talk: Astronomy Update by Charles Hemann

12:15 p.m.

Show: Zula Patrol

Description: A children's show that discusses what weather is like on different planets.

1:15 p.m.

Talk: Lunar Rock Replicas by Tommy Lewis

2:15 p.m.

Show: Two Small Pieces of Glass

Description: A history of the telescope and what you can see through telescopes.

3:15 p.m.

Talk: "Good Lights, Dark Nights" by Bill Wren from the University of Texas

4:15 p.m.

Show: Oasis in Space

Description: A tour of the solar system in search of life's most precious resource, water.

Other Events Include:

- Telescope display and telescope buying information at 2:30 p.m.
- Safe solar viewing with the West Texas Astronomers
- Star-Q quiz to test your astronomy knowledge

Event is FREE!!!

Shows: $3 for adults and $1 for children

For information please call:

Dr. Andrew Kerr
Museum of the Southwest
1705 W. Missouri Ave.
Midland, TX
432-683-2882

WEST TEXAS ASTRONOMERS

MUSEUM OF THE SOUTHWEST